Studio Legale Lauro is an Italian and International law firm which offers a wide range of legal services in maritime, commercial, and international matters to the global maritime business and other industries.

We have a sound understanding of shipping, commercial, corporate, finance, banking, competition, insurance, construction, administrative, environmental, taxation, bankruptcy, criminal, labor and banking law, and we represent the full spectrum of those involved in the shipping industry. We provide high quality legal advice based upon a clear understanding of clients' needs and working closely with them through the process. Our energetic track record and firm commitment is to represent our clients with world-class legal skill, providing smart advice and effective action.

Through our work with leading Italian and foreign ship owners and financial institutions, we have developed significant expertise in mergers & acquisitions, joint-venture agreements, loan agreements, transnational commercial contracts, and various types of financing transactions. And we are well-placed to act as consultants between ship owners and financial institutions to arrange different financing opportunities.
